WHAT MIGHT HAVE HAPPENED

WHAT MIGHT HAVE HAPPENED

We fairly shudder when we think of what might have happened, had Judge Mix allowed Nat Winston to be returned to South Carolina, last Frilay, in custody of Sheff Wington.

There is little doubt in our mind as to what would have happened to Winston shortly after the news was confirmed, that the prisoner was within the borders of the Palmetto State. We need to agree that a "neck-tie" party had already been organized and the participants ready to go. By previous arrangements, no doubt, the Sheriff was to wire ahead, the news, of the comping of Samuel Brown, the Negro, who had murdered a white man in South-Carolina and fled some twenty years ago. Of course the only trial, Lind was scheduled, was that of the mob. Mob trials are conducted without reason. It does a victim just as much good to say yes, as it-does to say no., Mob verdicts are the same always. The clouder the pleas of innocence, the louder the yells for blood. So when we think of these things, we can't but shudder to think of what might have happened, if someone had not acted as an advo-cate and plead before the courts here and saved Nat Winston, from at least being exposed to such grave danger.

Visualize a moment, Get a picture of hundreds of men women and children, waiting at a little country railroad station for Sheriff Winges with the prisoner. Ropes, more than enough, all sorts of fire arms, from the musket to the newest model, yes, knives of every description, from the pen knife to the butcher's, all in readitess to assist its owper in securing a souvenir, should the "neck-tie" party come off. This we say, we repoat, is the one big reason why it was best in the light of right and, justice, that the court here refused to allow a victim to be returned to South for on alleged crime that the is lynched or burned at the stake, but we do say, in the case where a white man had been killed, that we would not have given for the life of any Negro who was accomplished in the security of the security of the security of the security o

There will be millions of people of these United States who will be sorely disappointed if the Ku Khu Khan is allowed to parade at the Nation's capital Saturday, thus furthering their propaganda of race and religious hatred.

The statement that the Klan is a benevolent, charity and religious organization, has been repeatedly denied by scores of former members, who say that most of the announced principles and rown the plant of the more of the fail of the statement who aimed for lofty purposes, but when they found the member of the fail of the statement who aimed for lofty purposes, but when they found the statement who aimed for lofty purposes, but when they found the statement who aimed for lofty purposes, but when they found the statement who aimed for lofty purposes, but when they found the statement who aimed for lofty purposes, but when they found the statement of the stat or anybody else.

It is a brazen attack upon the Constitution of the United States to allow a Klan parade at the Nation's capital, and the President and Attorney General are parties to the act if nothing is done by these efficials to prevent the parade.

Fear is expressed, as the time draws near, that there might be some trouble, therefore, all the police reserves have orders to betready, and a few companies of marines have also been ordered to the scene. All of this is the more reason why the Klan parade should not he had.

THAT HAIRDRESSERS' BILL

Many have been the complaints that have come to us since the publication in these columns has tweek, the complete text of the Hairdressers' Bill, recently passed by the State Jegislature. We do not see just mow how the complaints are going to help the situation, as the bill has been passed, the governor signed it may be situation, as the bill has been passed, the governor signed it may be situation, as the bill has been passed, the governor signed it may be the situation, as the bill has been passed, the governor signed in the situation, as the bill has been passed, the governor signed in the situation of the law. The merits or demerits, of the bill, will in doubt, be tully understood in about a year from now.

Or course, the Negroes of the State, for the most part, were disappointed in, that Governor Baker did not appoint a Negro on this board. We understood that the governor made such a promoise, and it was generally expected that he would carry out, that promise, Just why the governor failed, no one seems to know. It may be that he has been influenced by some one, who, like C. G. Williams, has advised the governor wrong.

By every rule of the game, taking into consideration—the number of Negro hairdressers, beauty culturists, thiropodists and manicurists, in the state, the govenor was bound by every rule of justice and fair play to appoint a Negro on that board, but he refused to do so. He could not have possibly overlooked the importance of such an appointment, but what does the governor care?

We call the people's attention to these things because we be-care? We call the people's attention to these things because we be-lieve that the Negroes will always be disappointed in matters of this kind, unless we think when we are voting men into office. The time is at hand when we should vote for onen and measures-rather than mere party labels.

The ministers of the city say that they are determined in their fight for better school facilities for Negro children. Let all the people say, "Amen."

The talk about a war between the white and the darker races gained some impetus, since it is reported that Marcus Garvey be deported when he is released from prison at Atlanta.

Following the death and burial of William Jennings Bryan, & Ku Klux Klan, of the realm of Penasylvania and Ohio, held groppiate ceremonies and burned the firery cress in honor of the reatest Klansman that ever lived. We wonder if the same any would happen in the Klan strongholds, should President

ST. LOUIS' FINEST NEGRO UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT, NOW COMPLETED

A. L. BEAL. President Beal Undertaking Co.

Queen of A. U. K. and P. of A. Henever boarded with any one and did his washing and mending after work

The City of St. Louis is again reminded of what a which eavake, honest, business like man of our race can do by concentrated efforts.

The above cut is an exact likeness of the resmoothed home of Beal Undertaking Company, which has just been completed. The present building has cut-stone and windows which transform it into an ediffee of charm and dignity. The building comprises eighteen rooms including a general and private office, a private reception room for the bereaved family. Ladles' and Gents' rooms, easket and storage rooms, a large sanitary mough and a beautiful Chapel. The newly-cquipped chapel has art windows which cast a soft, gentle light upon the interior, lending a sympathetic air to the room. Besides its front entrance there is a side door, leading from the chapel to the covered driveway by which the attendants may enter the cars protected from inclement weather.

of out-of-town patrons who have charge of funeral arrangements or a relative, who must spend one or more nights in the city. They make but to notify the office and their transportation to and from the depot and the guest chamber will be furnished them free of charge.

The entire arrangements throughout the establishment show much thought and study for the comfort and accommodation of their patrons. The new, modern garage will house sixteen nutomobiles, all cadillas service.

The Beal Undertaking Company stands out as, a monument of the race—the natural result of confectrated efforts, patience, courage, honesty, years of tolling and sacrifice, and that bull-dog determination to win. Efficiency and courtesy have been the, basis of their success.

Mr. Beal started in the undertaking business September 13, 1913, 2726 Lucas Ave., his present location, in a two-story residence, using the first floor for office, chapel and morgue, and the second floor for living quarters. By his untiring efforts and courteous service, with the assistance of his competent daughter, Miss Birdie Beal, he has built up a business second to none of its kind, owned and operated by members of dur group. In 1921, they added to the business a charactered Benevolent Burial Association to which a joining fee of $3.60 per family entitles each member of family to a $100.00 burial. This Association has proven a woinderful success as well as a blessing. It has enabled many families to care for their departed ones who otherwise would not have been able to do 50. The Association has paid out $2800.00 in policies.

The Beal Undertaking Company will open their West End Establishment, 4229 W. Finney Ave., about September 1, 1925 with all modern conveniences for the accommodation of their West End patrons. Mr. L. V. Atkins will have charge as manager and the same courteous, sympathetic service that has always characterized the Beal Undertaking Company will be accorded the patrons of the new establishment.
